The Insurer

The Insurer of the Policy is CGU Insurance Limited.

What is a Product Disclosure Statement

This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) contains information about the policy including the benefits and conditions, your rights as a client and other things you need to know to assist you to make an informed decision when choosing your insurance.

In this PDS:

- 'we', 'our' or 'us' means CGU Insurance Limited.
- 'you' means the Insured who is named in the schedule.
- 'insured person' means the person nominated by you for the insurance cover for which the premium has been paid. The insured person and the type of cover chosen will be set out in the policy schedule.

What The Policy Consists Of

Your policy consists of:

- this printed PDS document which sets out details of your cover and its limitations, and
- a schedule, approved by us, which sets out the cover, the period of insurance, the limits of liability, excesses and other important information. This is referred to as the Schedule/Schedule of Benefits in this policy document.

You should carefully read and retain your insurance policy document and current schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us.

Our Agreement With You

We will insure you for the benefits as set out in this policy occurring during the period of insurance.

This cover will be given on the basis:

- that you have paid or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover you selected when you applied for cover and which the current schedule indicates is in force,
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave after having been advised of your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing. If you failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of voiding your policy from the effective date stated in the current schedule. For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure, under the heading "Your Duty of Disclosure", on page 4.

The Cost of Your Policy and Paying For Your Insurance

The cost of the policy is calculated based on the number of days you rent the vehicle in the policy period and is made up of premium, government taxes such as Goods & Services Tax (GST) and Stamp Duty, where applicable.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for this policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers,
- tell us everything you know, and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

What you do not need to tell us:

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk,
- that is of common knowledge,
- that we know or should know as an insurer, or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who does the above duty apply to? Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the relevant duty. What happens if you or they do not comply with the duty? If you or they do not comply with the relevant duty, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Claims Administration

If you need to make a claim, please send a written notice of claim to DriveAway Holidays Pty Limited, Level 2, 157 Walker Street, North Sydney, NSW, 2060, Australia, within thirty (30) days of the date of the incident occurring or as soon as reasonably possible. DriveAway Holidays will send you a copy of our claim form which will need to be fully completed. We will not be responsible for any payments under the policy unless this form is fully completed and returned. Any costs involved in the collection of information for the form are your responsibility.

Any payments will be made in the same currency as the premium quoted.

Once a payment is made under this policy, we may attempt to recover the amount we have paid to you if we find someone else is responsible for the loss or damage. We will do this in your or the insured person's name. We may also need to defend you, or the insured person, if someone else alleges you caused them loss or damage. You and the insured person need to co-operate with us.

Cooling-Off

If you decide that you do not want the policy, you have a cooling off period of fourteen (14) days from the date on which the policy was issued to cancel the policy. You must tell Us in writing that you wish to cancel the policy and we will repay the full amount of premium to you. If you choose to use the cooling-off period, then we will treat the policy as never having existed.

You cannot use this cooling-off period if the insured person commenced the hiring of the vehicle, the policy has already expired or if there has been a claim made under the policy.

Dispute Resolution

We and A & H International will do everything possible to provide a quality service to you. If you have any concern or complaint, A & H International staff are always available to listen to you and to help where they can.

If, after talking to a staff member, you wish to take the matter further, A & H International has a Complaints and Dispute Resolution Procedure which undertakes to provide an answer to you within fifteen (15) working days. Please contact the Disputes Resolution Manager - see contact details at the end of this Product Disclosure Statement.
